

At Montpellier Gardens • Saturday 14 May 2011

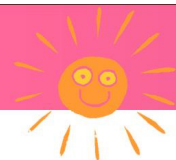

CHELTENHAM
CARNIVAL
& Fun Day in aid of Line

The word 'CARNIVAL' is written in large, multi-colored letters (purple, pink, orange, yellow, green, blue). To the left of the word are several colorful brushstrokes in purple, yellow, green, and orange.

in association with
Pandemonium Theatre & Education

All day family fun day from 10am - 4pm, including large children's area, community
performances, caterers & traders village.

CARNIVAL PROCESSION APPROX 4.30PM

Performance Tent

Circus Skills Workshops by Thomas Trilby

10:00, 10:30, 11:00 and 11:30am - Half hour sessions - £1 per person

All ages can have a go at juggling, plate spinning, diabolo, devil sticks, poi, hula hoop, stilts, unicycles and much more.

12:30 Canvas Theatre Co from University of Glos presents a family children's musical 'Petit Rouge', based on Little Red Riding Hood

Adult £3, Child £2

14:00 Kieran Powell - 'Look Who's Talking' - Adult £2, Child £1

Amazing young ventriloquist - watch the show & take part in workshop.

Please purchase tickets for these events at the information desk.

Open Performance Space

10:30 Everyman Theatre presents 'Gloucestershire - The Most Trivial Facts' with Paul Southcott, Caro Day and Murray Andrews

11:00 Canvas Theatre Co from University of Glos presents 'Blue Mondays' a tongue in cheek tribute to the 80s with singing and dancing inspired by the first video games.

13:45 Everyman Theatre presents 'Gloucestershire - The Most Trivial Facts'

15:00 Canvas Theatre Co from University of Glos presents 'Blue Mondays'

15:20 Stop Gap Dance Apprentice Company presents 'Pleased to Meet....'

13.45 Star College presents Crystal Dance Company

Band Stand

12:30 The Bon Bonz

14:00 The Chip Shop Boys

16:00 The Kim Cypher Band

18:00 Uke Glos

19:00 TO BE CONFIRMED

Workshops

Learn a dance from The Wizard of Oz or Mary Poppins and join in the PARADE with Phil Thomas and Claire Rickard, artists from London's West End Musical Theatre.

11:30-12:15 We're off to see the Wizard - £5 each

12:45-13.30 Jolly Holiday from Mary Poppins - £3 each

Make your Munchkin Hat with Sue Condie Theatre Craft Workshop

14:30-15:20 - We're off to see the Wizard - £5 each

We hope you have a lovely day :)

LEAVE NO TRACE! - please take your litter with you

Grassed Arena

13:00 CST New Image Majorettes

13:30 Mirage and Siren Belly Dancing Workshop

14:00 Coady Crew

14:30 Scottish Dancing with The Royal Scottish Country Dancing Society

15:00 Zumba with Mandy Bains

16:00 Everyman Theatre presents 'Gloucestershire - The Most Trivial Facts' with Paul Southcott, Caro Day and Murray Andrews

The carnival procession commences at approximately 16:30.

The bar will remain open until 20:00
with music in the bandstand.

This is a charitable event - please give generously to The Leukaemia & Intensive Chemotherapy Fund.

LINC staff and volunteers will man the information desk.

Please note all timings are subject to change.

The Carnival Prince and Princess have had their Carnival Day outfits kindly sponsored by The Montpellier Chapter Hotel.

www.cheltenham-carnival.co.uk

Linc